

55 Years of IGSSS

Sowing Seeds of Change

"Fifty five years is a long time in the history of any institution, especially so, for a development organization. That, together with the stakeholders and several partners, IGSSS has traveled thus far with unwavering commitment and devotion is a real tribute to the founding fathers of IGSSS..." ... \(Read more\)

Media

Women lead Loo Crusade

In a tribal dominated Jhabua district of Madhya Pradesh, 57 women crusaders of Gopalpura village have begun a loo revolution. These women mostly belong from below poverty line families. They are members of the women's watch group formed under the HUMANE programme. ... \(Read more\)

Youth Development

Training on Development and Governance

The Churners' Initiative is a project for young visionaries encouraging them to use their innovation for reducing poverty and create an impact on the city's governance. The trainees choose their focus area of work and methodology they want to adopt to make an impact. ... \(Read more\)

Stories

Giving Wings to Young Dreams

Raju, aged 18 year, living in Baljit Nagar, New Delhi was happy and contented with his life till suddenly one day his father fell ill and he had to join his father in his small shop to help him out. ... \(Read more\)

CELEBRATING

55

YEARS

IGSSS

Weekly

IGSSS Weekly Vol - 3

Issue -19

May, 2015

Reach us at:

www.igsss.org

facebook.com/IGSSS