

IGSSS

Weekly

Flood Situation haunts Kashmir once again. IGSSS with the support of CAID, Global Medic & Aquaplus prepares itself for Emergency Humanitarian Intervention

Disaster Risk Reduction

IGSSS gears up for Relief Operations in Kashmir

The second bout of incessant rainfall in Kashmir has brought in a new scare of floods even before the victims of the last flood could be properly rehabilitated ... \(Read more\)

Sustainable Livelihood

IGSSS successfully completes the Review Meeting of its SOUL Partners

IGSSS as part of its programme on promoting sustainable livelihood for the rural marginalized has been implementing the SOUL (Sustainable Options for Uplifting Livelihood) projects for the past 3 years ... \(Read more\)

Sustainable Livelihood

Mud Crab Farming – An Alternative Livelihood Option

Kandha Malik participated in the meetings conducted by DMT (Disaster Management Team) with the support from IGSSS. He gained knowledge and skills on cultivating mud crabs in bamboo cages as an alternative livelihood option ... \(Read more\)

Conflict

Ethnic Conflict in Bodoland - Narratives of Crisis

Madan Murmur wakes up around midnight every single night. This has been the routine since the last fifteen years or so as he continues to be haunted by the nightmare of getting drowned every single night ... \(Read more\)

IGSSS Weekly Vol - 3

Issue -14

April, 2015

Reach us at:

www.igsss.org

facebook.com/IGSSS

Life-Freedom-Dignity