

IGSSS

Weekly

IGSSS organized an Annual Youth Convention to felicitate the Young Volunteers who put in tremendous efforts during Relief Assistance Campaign post floods in Kashmir.

Governance

Kuki Village Self Governance - Excerpts from a Study

In an attempt to develop a complete handbook to ensure participatory decision-making in local development of Kuki society, a tribal community hailing from Manipur, IGSSS conducted a research study. ... \(Read more\)

Youth Development

Annual Youth Convention in Kashmir

With an objective to encourage and reflect on the efforts made by Youth Volunteers post floods in Kashmir, IGSSS organized an Annual Youth Convention under the SMILE programme with support from MISEREOR. ... \(Read more\)

Urban Poverty Reduction

Sensitization through Street Theatre

As part of a sensitization initiative for the members of the Valmiki Community, St. Xavier's Non Formal Education Society, one of the partner organizations of IGSSS, organized a street theatre in eight areas of the city. ... \(Read more\)

Sustainable Livelihood

Impact Assessment Study – A Brief

An impact assessment study of IGSSS project "Community Livelihood Resilience and Humanitarian Assistance in Phailin and Flood Affected Areas of Odisha and Andhra Pradesh" was conducted by Bhubaneswar based I-Concept Initiatives. ... \(Read more\)

IGSSS Weekly Vol - 3

Issue -17

April, 2015

Reach us at:

www.igsss.org

facebook.com/IGSSS

Life-Freedom-Dignity